FINAL STANDING.

The Twin City League closed its 1916 season Sunday with double-headers, the Champs taking two from the Bertrands, K. of C. two from Mackin, Orioles two from Trinity, and the Imperials two from the Olympics. The pennant winning K. of C. team will play the Cincinnati amateur champions on Saturday, September 23, and on the following day will journey to Cincinnati for two games there. The final standing of the league:

Clubs	W.	L.	Pct.
K. of C.	19	2	.905
Mackin	14	7	.667
Champs	14	7	.667
Imperials	12	9	.571
Bertrands	9	12	.429
Olympics	8	13	.381
Orioles	8	13	.381
Trinity	0	21	.000

COLONELS VS. ST. PAUL.

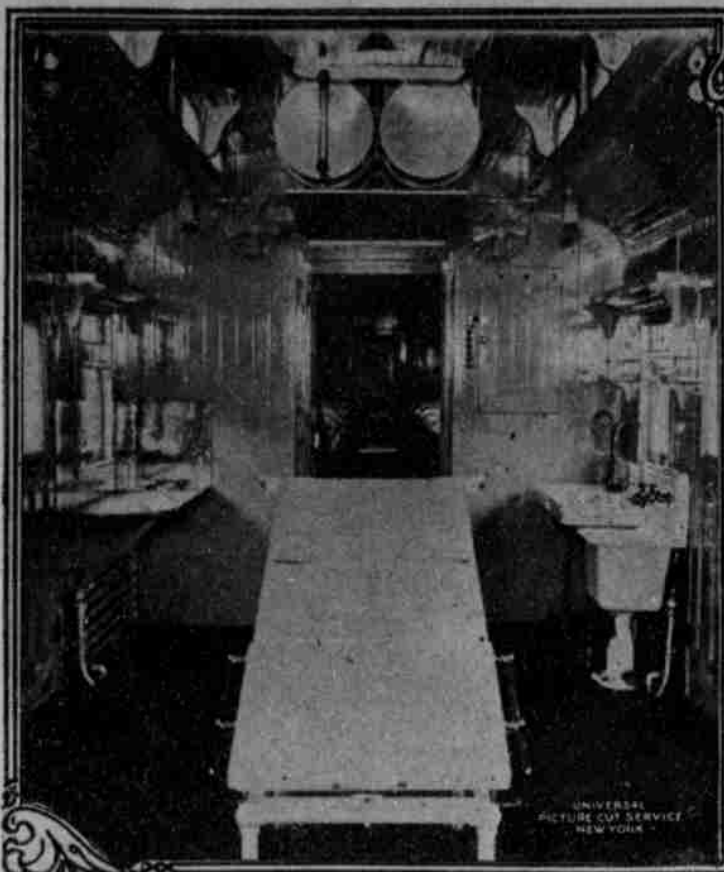

Mike Kelly's St. Paul team will begin a five-game series with the Louisville ball club today, having just come from Indianapolis, where they played the Hoosier team off its feet, and incidentally beat them the majority on the season. Louisville has more than held its own with St. Paul, registering eleven wins against eight defeats. The Colonels will not have easy sailing as Manager Kelly is still a little miffed about Owner Wathen's purchase of his star catcher Clemons, the old Louisville player, and chances are he will use him in every game to help beat his future team-mates. A double-header will be played tomorrow afternoon and it is hoped that the fans who comes with a big crowd will be refused admission at the gate. The locals lost two double-headers at home this season to the two biggest crowds of the year, Kansas City and Toledo being the beneficiaries, and in both instances the games were donated because of miserable fielding.

PRIESTS IN RETREAT.

Five hundred priests of the diocese of Chicago finished their annual retreat yesterday. These Chicago priests made their retreat this year in almost equal sections, so that no church was left unattended. The first section closed on Friday, September 1. Archbishop Mundelein addressed the priests on that day. The exercises were held at Notre Dame University, and were conducted by Rev. Daniel Quinn, S. J., of New York, formerly President of Fordham University.

VISITING PARENTS.

Frank Hanaford, a senior of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and a popular New Albany boy, is home on a furlough for a visit to his parents and relatives. He will be graduated next spring.

HOSPITAL TRAIN TO MEXICAN BORDER.

This train, consisting of ten coaches, has been built especially for army hospital work and is said to be as modern in equipment as any of the hospital trains in use in Europe. Photo shows first aid or surgical car, in which there is a thoroughly equipped operating room.

TWIN CITY CONTEST.

The close of the Twin City League season has not dimmed the ardor of some of the workers in the popularity contest and with the date of the world's baseball series drawing near some good likes are being put in for the contestants. The ending of the first four remains practically the same, all receiving a big vote this past week, a close contest being waged for second place between Scorer Eddie Steinbock and "Bob" Morris, both being within striking distance of Ray Haragon, the Bertrand star, and whose friends say he is a cinch to be one of the lucky two who go to the world's series. The rumors of a dark horse will not down and it would not be surprising to see one of those down in the race come to the front with a spurt the closing week. A new subscription good for twenty votes is the popular method with the workers and some are promised a five-year subscription good for 100 votes for their favorite. Only three more weeks to hustle, the contest closing Saturday, September 30, and the winners will be notified right away to get ready for their trip to Brooklyn, Boston or Philadelphia. The standing to date:

R. Haragon, Bertrands	744
Morris, Mackin	583
Steinbock, score	576
Kenealey, K. of C.	266
Killoran, Orioles	163
J. Scully, Olympics	153

ROOTERS ENTERTAIN WINNERS.

Tuesday night Manager Thomas D. Cline and the Knights of Columbus baseball team, winners of the Twin City League pennant, were given a theater party by their rooters at the Strand Theater, where Al Field's minstrels appeared. Manager Cline received the invitation and congratulations of the K. of C. following before they left Shawnee Park at the close of the last game.

OUR LABOR DAY.

Labor day in Louisville was joyfully celebrated, the parade being most creditable and the gathering at Phoenix Hill Park the largest for many years. Five thousand marched in the parade, and that many more heard the address of Ed. Edwards, J. McDermott, which all declared the best Labor day speech ever heard here. There were many attractive floats in the parade, the three judges, Nathan Kahn, William A. Perry and A. T. Burgevin, awarding the first prizes to the barbers and carpenters.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Capt. Edward Pulford, Lieut. George Clifford, Patrolman Charles Ruez and George Beck had a narrow escape from serious injury early Monday morning when the automobile in which they were driving to Hodgenville skidded over an embankment and was wrecked. All suffered painful bruises and Beck had his leg broken. They were brought to a local hospital and given prompt attention and all but Beck are able to be out again.

SCHOOL OPENED.

Last Sunday the handsome new school for St. Leo's church at Highland Park, which the pastor, Rev. Father Fitzgerald, has just had erected, was blessed and dedicated by Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue. The formal opening took place Tuesday and was a most agreeable surprise to both the pupils and their parents. The new structure is modern and well equipped and is another monument to the energy and zeal of the pastor.

DECLARE FOR AMERICA.

The Kentucky German-American Alliance, which met in Frankfort the first of the week, adopted resolutions condemning the exportation of arms and ammunition to European nations as inhuman and a violation of true neutrality, and condemning racial antagonism. The convention also adopted resolutions favoring the decoration of every home and business house with the national colors on all public occasions and the "flag in every home" movement. Carl Wellendorf, of this city, was re-elected President. Before adjourning the following resolutions were adopted by unanimous vote:

"We reiterate our belief in true Americanism, which upholds the Constitution.

"We advocate the maintenance of all American rights on land and water.

"We, as loyal citizens of this country, protest against any unjust slander and accusations against our race by anyone or any set of men and interests. Our forefathers, as well as we, have done and are doing our part toward the development and the prosperity of this, our country, and we make a united stand against attempts to sow discontent among our people by advocating race prejudice."

HURT BY FALL.

Miss Kate Talty, who has been the guest of friends here for the summer, suffered a double fracture of her arm last week and is now at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital. She was visiting cousins at Highland Park, and while descending the stairs at their home missed her footing and fell down the entire flight. The injured member was set, but it will be some time before she will have its use.

EUCHE AND LOTTO.

Friday night, September 22, a euche and lotto party will be given in St. William's Hall, Thirteenth and Oak. Those acting on the committee are Mrs. Monahan, Mrs. Lish and Misses Alice Cullen, Anna Moran, Mary Lynch, Kathryn Callahan, Agnes Fallon, and Cordelia Glenn. The games will be called at 8:30 o'clock and they invite all their friends.

LONG VISITATION TRIP.

Very Rev. Leo Grulich, of Syracuse, N. Y., Provincial of the Franciscan Fathers, was a caller at the Bishop's house at Sioux City on his way to Douglas for his annual visitation. Father Leo was for years pastor of St. Anthony's church on West Market street, and it is expected he will stop here before returning East.

MAKE INSPECTION TRIP.

Gen. Michael Reichert and Eugene McCarthy have been making a tour in the interest of the Uniform Rank Catholic Knights of America. They arrived in St. Louis last Sunday and were accorded a royal reception. From there they went to Chicago, and expect to complete their inspection and return home next week.

LIBRARY IRISH SECTION.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians of Indiana have offered to equip an Irish section in the new University Library at Notre Dame, and the generous offer has been accepted by the University's President. During the State convention of the A. O. H. in South Bend, Ind., the members were the guests for an afternoon of the University. They honored Father Cavanaugh, President of Notre Dame, with an honorary membership in the order.

DELEGATES.

Division 1, A. O. H., will be represented at the State convention which convenes here tomorrow by the following officers and alternates:

GOLDEN JUBILEE.

Rev. Martin O'Connor, the pastor, and committees are busy with preparations for the golden jubilee celebration of St. Michael's church, which will begin on Sunday, September 24, and continue throughout the week. The programme will be an elaborate one and will contain entertainment features for each evening.
